Quorum	1.	The quorum for general meetings of the Association shall be as specified in the Rules.
Order of Business	2.	The order of business shall follow the agenda prepared by the Chairperson and Secretary. Members shall introduce new business only after completion of the business set out on the agenda. The first item on the agenda shall be the confirmation of the minutes as a correct record.
Suspension of Standing Orders	3.	Should any matter of urgency arise, a member may move suspension of Standing Orders for a stated period of time to allow the urgent question to be discussed
Conduct of Speakers	4.	The Chairperson is to be treated with respect. When he or she rises to address the meeting all others must remain or become seated. Any person wishing to speak must rise and address the Chairperson
	5.	All remarks shall be addressed to the Chairperson, and any questions to another member shall be put through the Chairperson.
	6.	No interruption of a speaker is allowed except for two formal motions (32&34) and on a point of order. A point of order must be taken immediately the alleged breach has occurred, and be phrased as a question. "Chairperson, is it in order that....?"
	7.	If two or more speakers rise, the Chairperson shall call on the first one observed by him or her, subject to the power of the meeting to pass a resolution that a particular person be heard and subject also to the Chairperson's decision to choose speakers alternately supporting and opposing the motion.
Chairperson's Ruling	8.	The Chairperson's ruling on points of order and procedure shall be final, unless a motion is carried "that the Chairperson's ruling be disagreed with". The mover may speak briefly in support of his or her motion, and the Chairperson explain why his or her ruling was given. The Chairperson takes the vote.
Motions & Amendments	9.	All proposals made to the meeting shall be in the form of motions.
	10.	All motions and amendments proposed should be handed in writing to the Chairperson. They should be clearly expressed and capable of only one interpretation.
	11.	All motions and amendment, except inevitable (e.g. routine) motions and the closure (34) must be moved and seconded. If no seconder is found, the motion lapses.
	12.	A motion or amendment may be seconded pro forma , to allow discussion to take place, and the seconder need not support the proposal.
	13.	The seconder of a motion or amendment may reserve his or her speech to a later stage of the debate.

Withdrawal	14.	No motion or amendment which has been seconded shall be withdrawn without the unanimous consent of the meeting.
	15.	A speaker must keep to the question before the meeting.
	16.	No person may speak twice to the same question except in explanation, unless he or she is the mover of the original motion exercising his right of reply (23).
Personal Explanations	17.	By permission of the Chairperson, a member may speak briefly in personal explanation of his previous statement, but must keep strictly to the point which has been misunderstood. His or her explanation must not interrupt another speaker.
One Amendment at a Time	18.	When an amendment is moved to an original motion, no further amendment shall be discussed until the first amendment is disposed of, but further amendments may be foreshadowed without discussion. Amendments are voted on before the motion.
Not Direct Negation	19.	An amendment must be relevant to the question, and so framed that it forms, with the part of the original motion unaffected by it, a sensible and consistent proposal. It must not be a direct negation of the original motion.
Order of Amendments	20.	If a motion is capable of amendment in different ways, the Chairperson should ask for all amendments to be handed up in writing. He or she will then decide the order in which they shall be moved, which will depend on where they would stand in the substantive motion. No amendment can be accepted to the first part of a motion after the second or subsequent parts have been amended.
Speaking to Amendments	21.	No person may move or second more than one amendment to an original motion, but the mover and seconder of a motion or amendment may speak to subsequent amendments.
	22.	An amendment may not be moved or seconded by any person who has already spoken to the original motion or to a previous amendment.
Right of Reply	23.	The mover of a motion which is opposed may reply to the arguments raised before the motion is put, but he or she may not introduce new matter. His or her reply ends the debate, if there are no amendments. If an amendment is moved, the mover of the original motion exercises his or her right of reply before the first amendment is put. His or her reply need not end the debate on the substantive motion. The mover of the amendment has no right of reply.
Amendment Lost	24.	If the first amendment is lost, the original motion then becomes open to amendment.
Substantive Motion	25.	If the first amendment is carried, the motion as amended becomes the substantive motion, and is again open to amendment. When the substantive motion is put to the meeting and carried it becomes the resolution.
	26.	No member may speak on any motion after it has been put to the vote. No amendment may be moved after the substantive motion has been put to the vote.
Amendments to Motions on Notice	27.	Amendments may be moved to motions on notice provided they are within the scope of the notice, and can involve the Association in no further obligations than the notice specifies.

	28.	No motion can be accepted by the Chairperson which is the same in effect a one already lost, except on notice of motion.
Rescinding Resolutions	29.	Resolutions may not be rescinded until six months have elapsed except on notice of motion, forwarded to every member.
Resolution Null & Void	30.	If a resolution is passed inadvertently in contravention of the Rules, it may be declared null and void by a unanimous vote of the meeting.
Formal Motions	31.	The three motions following (32,33, and 34) are known as formal motions because they cannot be debated or amended. They can only be moved by someone who has not previously spoken during the debate.
Speaker No Longer Heard	32.	A motion "that the speaker be no longer heard" must be seconded. The Chairperson should try to obtain a fair hearing for the speaker if he or she is in order.
Next Business	33.	A motion "that the meeting proceed to the next business" may be moved either on a motion or an amendment. It requires a seconder. Its effect is to dispose of the question under discussion.
Closure	34.	A motion "that the question be now put", known as the closure, may be moved during the discussion of a motion or an amendment. It can interrupt a speaker and needs no seconder. If moved on an amendment it affects the amendment only. It does not prevent the mover of the original motion exercising his or her right of reply (23).
Adjournment Motions	35.	Any member who has not already spoken, including the person currently speaking, may move the adjournment of the debate. Any member may move the adjournment of the meeting, or "that the Chairperson leaves the chair". The two adjournment motions may be amended, but only as to time and place, and may not be moved again until a reasonable time has elapsed.
Voting	36.	Voting shall be by the voices or by show of hands except where a ballot is specified in the Rules.
Casting Vote	37.	The Chairperson shall have both a deliberative and a casting vote but is not bound to exercise them. Where voting is equal he or she may declare the motion "not carried". This will not debar the motion from being debated again at the next meeting.
Resolve into Committee	38.	A motion "that the meeting resolve itself into committee", if carried releases the restriction on the number of times a member may speak to a question.
